

Facility Management And Planning Office (DRA)

Provides primary point-of-contact for research customers for planning and scheduling test programs and activities in the GRC research facilities. Provides the overall oversight and strategic management to ensure customers' requirements are satisfied and that the facilities are available and optimally utilized. Responsible for advocating, developing, scheduling, and maintaining the major GRC research facilities in a safe, reliable, and effective manner. Responsible for the systems management, engineering development and commonality of the instrumentation, controls, and data acquisition systems in GRC research facilities.

